

INVITATION TO ALUMNI & FRIENDS

As a member of the LSU College of Agriculture Alumni (& Friends) Association, you will hold the special privilege of helping shape the future of the College of Agriculture as it continues to recruit top students. Join us in our efforts to create a greater awareness of what the College of Agriculture at LSU has to offer. Help generate pride and optimism within our state and across the nation for agriculture and family life. After you have joined, encourage a friend to become a member. Now, more than ever, we need your support. Get involved and help make a difference! Don't delay joining. Your involvement is vital to the success of agriculture and related industries and the betterment of families.
